IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA

Civil Appellate Jurisdiction

The 27th January 1959

PRESENT:

THE HON'BLE PARESH NATH MOOKERJEE

AND

THE HON'BLE PANCH KARI SARKAR

(TWO OF THE JUDGES OF THIS COURT)

Appeal from Original Decrees Nos. 278 of 1958, 279 of 1958 and 282 of 1958 (Election Appeals).

Appeals against the decree of Shri Bijayesh Mukherjee, Election Tribunal, Calcutta (West Bengal), in Election Petition No. 439 of 1957, dated the 27th August 1958.

In No. 278—Brojagopal Das -Appellant;
In No. 279—Nirmal Chandra Das—Appellant;
In No. 282– Biren Roy Appellant;

versus

In Nos. 278 and 279—Kalipada Banerjee and ors., respondents and 282.
Mr. Jitendra Kumar Sen Gupta, and
Mr. Asoke Kumar Sen Gupta in 278;
Mr. Prafulla Kumar Roy and
Mr. Manash Nath Roy, in 279; and
Mr. S. K. Achariya, and
Mr. Manindra Chandra Chakravarty, in 282—for appellants;
Mr. S. M. Bose, Advocate-General,
Mr. A. C. Mitter,
Mr. Mahadev Hazra,
Mr. Birendra Nath Banerjee,
Mr Dipankar Gupta, and
Mr. Dwijen Lahiri, in all the three appeals -for respondents.

P. N. MOOKERJEE J: These three appeals are directed against the declaration granted by an Election Tribunal, that a certain parliamentary election is void. The respective appellants are Shri Brojo Gopal Das, and Shri Nirmal Chandra Das, two of the persons who were substituted under section 116 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, in place of the original contesting respondent before the Tribunal, namely, Shri Biren Roy, who was the successful candidate at the above election, upon the latters' retirement from contest, and the said Biren Roy himself is the appellant in the third or the other appeal.

The proceedings had had a chequered career before the Tribunal and they were lively and interesting and the questions that arose for consideration had also their own peculiar difficulties and interest.

The election in question was the last General Election of the Calcutta South West Parliamentary Constituency, held in March 1957, in which Shri Biren Roy was elected from the said constituency to the Lok Sabha or the House of the People. There were three candidates (one) Biren Roy, (two) Asim Krishna Dutta, and (three) Rajani Mukerjee. They, respectively, polled 94,944, 82,406 and 11,297 votes at the polling which took place on two dates, namely, the 4th and the 14th March 1957 and Roy was declared elected on March 20, 1957, when the results of the voting were announced.

On May 3, 1957, the first two respondents of the present appeal, namely, Kalipada Banerjee and Anil Kumar Sadhukhan who "at all material times were citizens of India and residents of Calcutta" within the above constituency and "were electors of the same and entitled to vote" at the above election, applied before the Election Commission, New Delhi, for a declaration that the above election, namely, of Shri Roy was void on certain grounds, of which the relevant ones will be duly noticed and referred to in the course of this judgment. The application (petition) in which originally all the three candidates, the successful Roy as well as the two defeated candidates Dutta and Mukerjee, were made parties as respondents, was registered as Election Petition No. 439 of 1957 and after the necessary preliminaries, it was forwarded by the Chief Election Commissioner and sent for Trial to Shri Bijoyesh Mukerjee, Additional District Judge, 24-Parganas, who had meanwhile been constituted the Tribunal for the purpose under section 86 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951. That was in June, 1957, and the first date of appearance of the parties before the Tribunal was fixed as July 18, 1957. On or before that date, the first two respondents, Roy and Dutt, duly appeared before the Tribunal and, on the 25th following the Tribunal, by its order of that date, held that, in view of the fact that the only prayer of the petitioners in their instant election petition was for a declaration that the above election, namely, of Biren Roy was void, Roy and none else was the necessary and proper respondent and directed that the names of Shri Dutta and Shri Mukerjee should be struck off. The Tribunal also overruled and the technical objection of respondent Roy to the maintainability of the instant election petition on account of deposit of the security for costs (Rs. 1,000) in the name of the Election Commission, New Delhi, instead of in the name of the Secretary to that Commission in literal compliance with section 117 of the Act, holding inter alia, that there was substantial compliance with the said provision and such substantial compliance was sufficient under the law. The proceedings then continued against the sole respondent Biren Roy and after the preliminary steps had been taken by the parties, the hearing actually commenced on April 25, 1958. Between that date and May 9, 1958, nine witnesses P.W.s Nos. 1 to 9 were examined by the petitioners of whom two (P.W.s Nos. 4 and 9) were examined in part during the said period. In the meantime, the Tribunal's order, regarding the validity and sufficiency of the deposit, had been upheld by this court in a proceeding under Art. 226 of the Constitution and the respondent Roy had applied before the Election Commission for transfer of the instant case to some other Tribunal.

On and from May 10, 1958, certain events of importance happened in quick succession. At the first sitting of the Tribunal on that date the respondent Roy applied for a stay of the proceedings till the disposal of his transfer application by the Election Commission and, that prayer having been refused by the Tribunal and a prayer for a short adjournment of one hour having also been refused, Roy's Advocates retired from the case. Thereafter the proceedings continued ex-parte from the 10th to the 17th May 1958, during which period evidence of P.W.s Nos. 4 and 9 was concluded and the evidence of P.W.s Nos. 10, 11 and 12 was also taken and P.W. No. 6 was recalled and further examined and then arguments on behalf of the petitioners were heard. The Tribunal, however, had to reserve judgment as meanwhile this court (Sinha J) had issued a Rule, injuncting him from delivering judgment until the said Rule was disposed of or until the disposal of Roy's transfer application by the Election Commission, whichever is earlier, and, accordingly, the Tribunal directed the records to be put up on May 24, 1958.

On May 23, 1958, two applications were moved, one by the appellant Nirmal Chandra Das and the other by another person Santosh Kumar Banerjee, praying inter alia for appropriate action under section 116 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, and the said applications were eventually fixed for hearing on the 28th by the Tribunals' order of May 24, 1958. On that very day, however, namely, the 24th, Roy himself filed an application before the Tribunal intimating to it that he had withdrawn and/or retired from the case of May 10, 1958 and intimating further that he would not oppose the instant Election Petition. All the above three applications were heard by the Tribunal on May 28, 1958 and by its order, dated June 2, 1958, the Tribunal came to the conclusion that the provisions of section 116 of the Act should be set in motion and he directed necessary steps to be taken in terms of that section. The relevant notification under the section was thereafter published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, on June 16, 1958 and, within the statutory period of 14 days, several persons including the two appellants in the first two appeals before us, applied under section 116 for, inter alia, substitution in place of the original respondent Shri Biren Roy and permission to oppose the Election Petition and continue the proceedings on such terms as the Tribunal might think fit and proper.

On July 3, 1958, the Tribunal allowed the said applications upon two terms, viz., (i) "The applicant or the applicants of each application do deposit by July 10, 1958, a sum of Rs. 1,000 (Rupees one thousand only) either in a Government Treasury or in the Reserve Bank of India in favour of the Secretary, Election Commission, New Delhi, as security for costs. The relevant receipt must be filed before this Tribunal on or before that date, viz., July 10, 1958. Should this direction be not complied with, the applicant or the applicants concerned shall not be substituted in place of the sole respondent Biren Roy and shall not be entitled to continue the proceedings."

and (ii) "The hearing shall continue from the stage at which it was at 10.30 a.m. on May 10, 1958."

and issued certain other directives which were recorded as follows:—

"1. Written statements, if any, must be filed by July 14, 1958;

2. Documents, if any, must be filed by July 16, 1958;

3. July 18, 1958, is set down for fixation of new issues, if any; and

4. July 21, 1958, is set down for completion of all steps including citation of witnesses and for setting a date of peremtory hearing. I give an intimation in advance that the election petition shall be set down for peremptory hearing again on or about August 5, 1958."

The deposit was duly made by three sets of applicants including the above two appellants and they also filed written statements. No documents, however, were filed by any party and on July 18, 1958, "the matter of fixation of new issues" was heard by the Tribunal. Eventually, however, the Tribunal did not frame any new issue and proceeded with the trial on the old or "existing" issues, of which all, except the first part of issue No. 3, which as finally recasts was in these terms:

"Is Shri Biren Roy disqualified for being chosen as a member of the Lok Sabha because of his connection with a firm under the name and style of Indo German Trade Centre?"

was given up by the petitioners. The Tribunal, however, by way of clarification, recorded its intention to discuss the above part of issue No. 3, under the following heads, viz.:

"(i) Did the Indo German Trade Centre enter into a contract with the Central Government for the installation of automatic vote recording equipment in the Lok Sabha and the Rajya Sabha?

(ii) Was the aforesaid contract subsisting on the date of the election of the returned candidate Shri Biren Roy to wit, on March 20, 1957?

(iii) Has the returned candidate, Shri Biren Roy, any share or interest in the aforesaid contract?"

and adjourned the case to August 5, 1958, for resumption of the interrupted peremptory hearing, directing the petitioners to bring "all their witnesses, examined on and from May 10, 1958" and directing further that the hearing would continue "de die in diem, Saturdays and holidays excepted". On August 5, 1958, P.W. No. 9 was cross-examined on behalf of the "added" or substituted respondents and discharged and, thereafter, P.W. No. 10, K. C. Ghose, was cross-examined in part by the said respondents. This cross-examination of K. C. Ghose, P.W. No. 10, continued up to the 7th when it concluded and, thereafter, he was recalled and further examined and also cross-examined again on the 8th when he was finally discharged and on the same date, P.W.s Nos. 11 and 12 were also cross-examined and discharged and, thereafter, the case was fixed for argument on the 16th and "added" (substituted) respondents having intimated to the Tribunal that they would not lead any oral evidence. On the 16th and the 18th, arguments were heard, and thereafter judgment was reserved by the Tribunal till the 27th when the Election Petition was allowed and the election of Shri Roy was declared void by the Tribunal. The present appeals are directed against this declaration, the first two appeals by the two "added" (substituted) respondents Brojo Gopal Das and Nirmal Chandra Das, and that third by the original respondent Biren Roy, the successful or the returned candidate at the said impugned election.

The controversy in the present case, as we have seen above, centres round the first part of issue No. 3, which we have quoted earlier as hereunder: "Is Shri Biren Roy disqualified for being chosen as a member of the Lok Sabha because of his connection with a firm under the name and style of Indo German Trade Centre?" The quoted issue requires a little explanation. In the light of the pleadings (vide paragraph 8B of the instant election petition) the relevant allegation is that the firm Indo German Trade Centre entered into a contract or contracts with the Government of India or the Central Government for installation of automatic vote recording equipments in the Lok Sabha and the Rajya Sabha which contract (or contracts) subsisted on the date of election and the respondent Shri Roy, at the said material time had share or interest in the aforesaid contract (or contracts) within the meaning of section 7(d) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, and was as such disqualified to be chosen to be elected to the Lok Sabha under section 100(1)(a) of the said Act. That was the substance of the allegation on which Roy's election was challenged and on which the parties differed and upon which the fate of the instant election petition depended. The Tribunal, therefore, did the right thing in clearing up the matter before the resumed hearing by declaring that the relevant issue that is, the first part of issue No. 3, would be discussed under the three heads which have been set out hereinbefore. Indeed, the above approach of the Tribunal was not objected to by the appellants, but what they complained was, and that was one of their grievances in these appeals, that they were not allowed to place full materials before the Tribunal on the first and to some extent, on the third too, of the above three questions, we shall return to that aspect later on.

In the light of our above observations we shall deal with the controversy in the present case under the above three heads and we proceed to do so seriatim.

Upon the written statement of Roy himself (vide paragraphs 21 and 22) it is fairly clear that the disputed contract or contracts were made by the Indo German Trade Centre with the Central Government. Strictly speaking it was not open to the "added" (substituted) respondents who were really substituted in place of Roy under section 116 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, to deviate from that pleading and make a new or different case on the point and as a matter of fact, in their applications for substitution, filed on June 24, 1958, the two "added" or substituted respondents who are appellants in the two appeals (F.A. Nos. 278 and 279 of 1958) expressly stated, inter alia that they wanted to adopt the written statement of respondent Biren Roy and prayed for permission to do the same and to cross-examine P.W.s Nos. 9, 10, 11 and 12 and file and call for documents, particularly from B. K. Mukherjee (vide paragraph 6 and the prayer portion of appellant Brojogopal Das's petition and paragraph 5 and prayer portion of the petition of appellant Nirmal Chandra Das). It is true that thereafter on July 14, 1958, they filed another set of written statements apparently under the relative directive of the Tribunal, dated July 3, 1958, and therein they sought to supplement Roy's written statement by certain additions, but, even there we do not find anything in effective denial or contradiction of the position, taken up by Roy on the above point in paragraphs 21 and 22 of his above written statement, to which reference has been made by us. As a matter of fact, appellant Nirmal Chandra Das again expressly adopted Roy's written statement and appellant Brojo Gopal also alleged nothing to its contrary. The latter, no doubt in paragraph 11 of his said new written statement filed on July 14, 1958, stated inter alia that the aforesaid "Indo German Trade Centre has or had no share or profit or interest in the contract of automatic vote recording equipment referred to by the petitioners in their election petition." But that was hardly an effective denial of Indo German Trade Centre's being or having been the contracting party with the Central Government in the matter of the said contract or contracts. Even on the pleadings, therefore, apart from any evidence, the first of the above three questions should be answered in the affirmative. But there is evidence also which plainly supports the same (vide Exts. 4, 5, 6 and 7 and the oral evidence of P.W. No. 17 and also Ext. A) and indeed, as it appears from the Tribunal's judgment, the above position was practically conceded by Brojo Gopal's Advocate before the Tribunal. Reference may also be made in the above connection to the letters, Exts. 3 series and 8 series, which also lend support to our above conclusion. It will also be seen later on that the appellant's main grievance on this point that they were prejudiced by the Tribunal's refusal to allow certain cross-examination of P.W. 10 has no substance in the facts of this particular case.

On the second question too, we feel not the slightest hesitation in agreeing with the Tribunal. Apart from the evidence of P.W. No. 1 on the point, on which the Tribunal relied, we think that the position was admitted that full payment had not been made on the contracts in question till at least, April, 1957 [vide letter Ext. 3(48)] and in view of the Supreme Court's decision in the case of Chatturbhuj Vithaldas Jasani vs. Moreswar Parasharam and others (1954) S.C.A. 378 at pp. 387-8, S.C.A.I.R. 1954 S.C. 236 at p. 242 until such payment was made the contracts must be held to have been subsisting for purposes of section 7(d) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951. The answer to this question also must, therefore, be in the affirmative, as correctly given by the Tribunal. On this part of the case the appellant's argument was that the relevant date would be the date of election which, according to section 67A of the Act, would be the date of declaration of the result of election, that is, March 20, 1957 and on that date, the disputed contracts were not subsisting, they having been fully executed by that time and only some payment thereunder remaining outstanding. That March 20, 1957, would be the relevant date for the present purpose need not be disputed and, as a matter of fact, the question itself was framed or formulated on that footing, but in the view of the law, which we have given above, the answer to the above (second) question would be in the affirmative, even if the relevant date be the 20th March 1957 as on the facts of this case [vide sub-section 3(48)] to which reference has been made above and which cannot be disputed, payments under the above two contracts were still outstanding.

The English law on the point may be different [vide for Royse vs. Birley (1869) 1 C.P. 296] but even if it is so, in this country and our law the position is, as we have indicated above, in view of the Supreme Court's decision in Chatturbhuja's case, Supra. That being so, in the facts of this particular case, this question too should be accorded in the affirmative and, accordingly, we affirm the Tribunal's conclusion on this point.

We come now to the most difficult part of the case, that is, the third question formulated above, which runs as follows, viz.: "Has the returned candidate Shri Biren Roy any share or interest in the aforesaid contract?"

This indeed, a very serious matter and required very careful consideration particularly when Roy won the disputed election by the very comfortable margin of 12,538 votes. Such an election should not be lightly interefered with and should not be touched except on very strong and compelling grounds. That as it appears from the Tribunal's judgment was one of the things which the Tribunal had uppermost in its mind and that attitude of the Tribunal is fully justified by the authority of the Supreme Court (vide Jagan Nath vs. Jaswant Singh and others A.I.R. 1954 S.C. 210 at p. 212). It is to be remembered, however, that this by itself, would not be any ground for maintaining the impugned election if it really suffers from any material or fatal defect or infirmity if, for instance, to take this instant case, it ultimately runs out that the successful candidate Roy suffered from the alleged disqualification at the material date, the mere fact that he won the election or won at by a very comfortable margin, may be by overwhelming votes, would not justify the rejection of the instant election petition. It will be only in border line cases or where the ground for setting aside the election or for a declaration that it was void is not wholly or absolutely clear or free from doubt that the elected candidate, by reason of his election, the more so, where he won by a comfortable margin, may have a weightage in his favour and may get the benefit of doubt. In judging, again, the validity of the ground, the court and the Tribunal will undoubtedly be more careful and more circumspect and may demand clearer and more convincing proof of the same and of its basic allegations where the successful candidate was returned by a large majority of votes. We do not think that the elected or the returned candidate is entitled to any greater advantage by reason of his election, be it by a comfortable margin or even if the election will have to be set aside or declared void, if any fatal or material disqualification or defect is made out. Substantially speaking that was also the view of the Supreme Court in Jagannath's case [vide A.I.R. 1954 S.C. 210 at p. 212, para. 7 (second part)]. Notwithstanding, therefore, the fact that Roy was returned with a comfortable majority, we have to examine though very carefully, because of his said comfortable margin, the disqualification, from which he (Roy) was alleged to suffer at the material time.

As noted above, the election has been impeached on the ground that, on the date of the election, Roy was "disqualified to be chosen to fill the seat or for being a member of the House of People (Lok Sabha)" and the disqualification alleged is that at the material date and at the material times, Roy had an interest or share in the business, carried on under the name and style of Indo German Trade Centre, which entered into the above contract as contracts with the Government of India for supply of automatic vote recording system (equipment) to the Lok Sabha or the House of the People and to the Council of State or the Rajya Sabha which contract or contracts were subsisting at the said material date, namely, the date of the election. That, indeed, as we have said above was the substance of the allegations in paragraph 8B of the election petition which is the only material paragraph for our present purpose, the other allegations of corrupt practices, etc., having been expressly given up by the petitioners. In short, therefore, Roy's election was sought to be set aside or declared void under section 100(1)(a) read with section 7(d) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 [and Act 102(1)(e) of the Constitution], in the light of section 67A of the said Act. That was the real issue, on which the parties fought before the Tribunal, and there was not the slightest doubt or misgiving on the point in the mind of either and our present task is to find out how that issue should be answered.

Before we take up the above crucial question on the merits we have to make some further preliminary observations. We have held above that the Indo German Trade Centre entered into the aforesaid contract or contracts with the Central Government and that the same was or were subsisting on the material date, that is, the date of election. The point, therefore, that prima facie remains for consideration is whether Roy, had, by himself or by any person or body of persons in trust for him or for his benefit or on his account at the material date referred to hereinbefore, namely, March 20, 1957, any share or interest in the aforesaid contract (which were undeniably contracts for supply for goods to or for the execution of works undertaken by the Central Government—the appropriate Government for purposes of section 7(d) [vide section 9(a) in regard to a parliamentary election] within the meaning of the said section 7(d). This has been attempted to be proved by the petitioners by alleging and seeking to establish that Roy was the proprietor of the said business concern Indo German Trade Centre or at any event, at all material times or at the material date, had a share or interest therein and thus a corresponding share or interest in its aforesaid contracts within the meaning of section 7(d) so as to come within the mischief of the said section. The appellants before us who were the respondents before the Tribunal deny the above allegation of the petitioners and they further contend that even if the petitioners succeeded in establishing that Roy was the proprietor of Indo German Trade Centre or had a share or interest therein and, necessarily, therefore, in its aforesaid contracts with the Government of India, that would not be sufficient to disqualify him under the above section or sections or provisions of law, referred to hereinbefore unless it was further proved that the said firm had some financial or pecuniary interest in or under its aforesaid contracts. As prima facie the contracts in question disclosed such interest, the appellants had to prove the contrary and this they endeavoured to prove by attempting to lead evidence that, in the matter of the said contracts, the Indo German Trade Centre was a mere contract agent of a German firm Telefonbau Und Mornalzeit G.M.B.H. which was the real tenderer or contracting party and that it (the Indo German Trade Centre) had no financial or pecuniary interest in the deal. This was not specifically raised or pleaded in the appellant's written statements nor does it appear that they offered or intended to adduce any evidence on the point (beyond what is on record) except by an attempt at cross-examination of P.W. 10, K. G. Ghosh. The cross-examination however was not allowed by the Tribunal and, because of that, a grievance has ben made before us. We do not think, however, that there is any substance in that grievance in the facts of this particular case. It is fairly clear from what we have stated above that apart from the disallowed cross-examination, and other relevant evidence on the point (which the parties cared or intended or chose to produce) is on the record. It is clear also that in view of the said evidence and the nature of the particular question or questions which were sought to be raised by the appellants in the present case, the cross-examination of P.W. 10 K. G. Ghosh would not have improved their (the appellants') position There was also some justification for disallowance of the above cross-examination in view of the absence of the relevant allegations—to wit specific allegations on the point in the appellants' written statements. In any event, we are perfectly satisfied, upon the facts before us, that no prejudice was actually caused to the appellants by such disallowance as aforesaid and they have no sufficient cause for any material grievance on the point.

With the above preliminary observations we proceed to consider the question of Roy's alleged statutory disqualification on the merits. That involves mainly construction of section 7(d) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, and its application to the facts of this case. The question of construction in its turn mainly depends upon the meaning to be given to the words "share or interest" used in the section. Prima facie the words are wide and having regard to the purpose of the section and the mischief it is intended—and seeks—to prevent we would have been glad to take the words in the widest import. For our present purpose, however, it will not be necessary to go so far as, even on the restricted meaning, which at least the words should bear on the decided authorities, this appeal upon the facts before us, should fail and Roy should be held to be sufficiently disqualified within the mischief of the relevant sections or sections or statutory provisions so as to lose his present seat in the House of the People and this election petition should succeed.

Provisions like section 7(d) have been a familiar feature of election laws from very early times. They are based on a sound, solemn and salutory principle which democracies or democratic constitutions can ill afford to spare or ignore. Their purpose is to guarantee the purity of the legislature and of the administrative machinery as well and it has been variously put by various eminent judges and noted authorities but always with an eye to the grantee of purity of the legislature and administration and to keep the source or the fountain head of law and the stream of administration unsullied and free from corruption. The basic standpoint is "to prevent conflict between interest and duty which would otherwise inevitably arise" [per Lindlay L.J. in Nortton vs. Wilson (1889) 22. Q.B.D. 744 at p. 748] and to prevent the member concerned from being exposed to temptation or even the semblance of temptation [per Lord Graham M.R. in the same case Nortton vs. Willson (1889) 22. Q.B.D. 744 at p. 747] and that has never been questioned. It has also been authoritatively laid down that "a concealed interest is as much as interest as an open interest, and the court in such matters will always look at the substance and not at the colourable exterior" [per McCardie J in Evereth vs. Grifliths (1924) 1.K.B. 941 at p. 947]. It has been ruled further that "no device to conceal the real nature of the transaction would prevail" [per Lord Loveturn L.C. in North vs. Taylor (1906) A.C. 378 at p. 380]. In that context, the word "interest" in section 7(d) may well receive a wide connotation and may well include even more than material interest but, for reasons which it is not necessary to examine now, decisions have restricted it to pecuniary or at the most material interest and that, as we shall presently see, being sufficient for our present purpose, any further discussion on the point of construction is unnecessary.

As we have said above, the petitioners' material allegations for purposes of section 7(d) are of a twofold character, namely, that at all material times and at the material date, Roy was the proprietor of the concern Indo-German Trade Centre or at any event had share of interest therein and in its aforesaid contracts within the meaning of the said section so as to fall within its mischief. To prove their case the petitioners relied in particular on the evidence of P.Ws. 1, 9 and 10 and upon Exts. 3, series 4, 5, 6, 7, 16, 19(4), 21, 23, 23(1) and 27. The appellants who were the contesting respondents at different stages of the proceedings before the Tribunal did not adduce any oral evidence but cross-examined the petitioners' witnesses. They also produced certain documents. It is significant, however, to note that notwithstanding the very serious allegations against him and the fact that his election was in jeopardy, Roy did not care to examine himself nor was he summoned or produced on behalf of the other appellants, and as a matter of fact, no attempt was made in that behalf to deny the petitioners' above allegations. Significantly also Shri B. K. Mukherjee, who was admittedly Roy's brother-in-law and who according to Roy and the other appellants, was the sole proprietor of the above concern was not examined by the appellants, and no attempt also was made by them in that behalf and there is no explanation either before the court for the non-examination of Roy and or Mukherjee or the absence of any attempt on the appellants' part for their production in court and examination. Roy and Mukherjee were undoubtedly two of the most competent witnesses on the above controversy between the parties and there can be no question also that they would have been available to the appellants, if they had so desired. In these circumstances, the burden that undoubtedly lies upon the petitioners of proving their above allegations that Roy was the proprietor of the concerned Indo-German Trade Centre—or had there or interest therein and in its aforesaid contracts within the meaning of section 7(d) at the relevant date is comparatively light and the dice is cast heavily against the appellants to prove the contrary and support their denial of the same. The initial onus is undoubtedly on the petitioners to make out a case, as pleaded by them, but once they succeed in making out such a case prima facie and their said task is rendered easier by reason of the above circumstances—the appellants have to refute the same to secure a dismissal of the instant election petition.

In the light of what we have said above, the petitioners' evidence appears to us to be sufficient for proving that Roy had at least a material interest in the firm Indo-German Trade Centre and in the latters' aforesaid contracts with the Central Government. That will be sufficient for disposal of this appeal and it will not be strictly necessary to go into their (the petitioners') other allegation, namely, that Roy was the proprietor—to wit, the sole proprietor—of the above firm or alternatively, had a share therein, although prima facie at least the materials on record may appear to contain some indication that Roy had proprietory interest in the said firm—either alone or jointly with B. K. Mukherjee.

We may just remind ourselves at this stage that what is required under the section [section 7(d)] is share or interest in the relevant contract though that interest, as we have held above, may well be material as distinguished from pecuniary interest, strictly so called. In order, therefore, that a person may be held disqualified under the above statutory provisions it may be necessary to prove as argued by the appellants not only that he (the said person) had a share or interest (material interest) proprietory or otherwise in the firm which had or held the particular contract or contracts with the relevant Government but also that the said contract or contracts were such as to be capable of conferring upon him or to put it a little more elaborately upon the firm and through it upon him—at least a material interest therein. For purposes of this case we need not dispute that proposition but we accept it and proceed on that footing.

That, in the two relevant contracts, constituted by the relative tenders and acceptance (vide Exts. 4, 5 and 6 and Ext. 7) Indo-German Trade Centre had a pecuniary or at least a material interest is amply proved by the said exhibits, read in the light of the correspondence [Exts. 3(3), 3(19) and 3(48) and even of Ext. A(1) produced by the appellants themselves]. It is true that in some of the papers [vide, e.g., Exts. 4, 5, 7 and A(1)] Indo-German Trade Centre is described as the contract firm for the manufacturer tenderer Telefonbau Und Mormalzeit G.M.B.H. It is true also that some of the letters, Exts. F and A(1) in particular deny that they (Indo-German Trade Centre) would have any profit out of the above two transactions. But taking the whole of the above documentary evidence in its entirety and reading it as a whole we have little doubt that the said firm had a pecuniary or at least a (sufficient) material interest in the above two contracts. It is well established now [vide England vs. Inglis (1920) 2. K.B. 638 and Evereth vs. Griffiths (1924) 1. K.B. 941 at p. 948] that interest in the above context does not necessarily postulate a pecuniary advantage or the possibility thereof and it may as well include pecuniary loss or disadvantage and corresponding possibility. If then Indo-German Trade Centre was, as we have held above, the contracting party for purposes of the aforesaid contracts, so far as the Central Government was concerned, it must be held to have had a material interest therein as it would have been liable for any defect, irregularity or default in the matter of their performance, and therefore, had at least the possibility of a pecuniary disadvantage thereunder. Even if they were mere contract agents for purposes of the above two contracts they had the risk of losing their reputation as good or efficient contract agents and that would have affected their business in case of delay and or difficulty in the matter of payment and, as a matter of fact, such delay and difficulty has actually arisen in this case [vide Exts. 3(48), 3(42), 8(29), 8(30) and 8(36)]. It appears also that the Indo-German Trade Centre was actually out of pocket to a considerable extent in connection with and for the purpose of the above contracts [vide Ext. 3(36), 3(19) and 3(48)]. In these circumstances we are of the opinion that they had sufficient interest, to wit, sufficient material interest within the meaning of the section at least in the shape of material loss or disadvantage or possibility thereof. The initial requirement under the section as contended for on behalf of the appellants is thus amply satisfied in this case.

Turning to the question of Roy's interest in the firm we may refer at once to Ext. 19(4) which appears to be a letter over Roy's signature. That it bears Roy's signature has not been denied or disputed before us. In fact, that signature has been admitted on behalf of the appellants. What is contended, however, is that the letter [Ext. 19(4)] is not Roy's as Roy, according to the appellant, had signed the letter in blank. This is merely a suggestion and, in the absence of Roy who could have himself deposed and appeared in the witness box and who could easily have been examined by the other appellants too, if he or they were so minded, and who certainly could have explained it, if he had so desired and if it was capable of explanation, we are not inclined to accept the above suggestion. Our attention has no doubt been drawn to Roy's Passport (Ext. L) which is said to prove that Roy was away from India from August 24, 1952 to October 26, 1952, whereas the letter [Ext. 19(4)] bears the date October 23, 1952, thus lending apparent support to the petitioners' above suggestion but we are not convinced. We have grave doubts as to whether the Passport (Ext. L) can be regarded as a public document and whether it has been rightly admitted into evidence in the absence of examination of the official who made the relevant entries which again are not very explicit or clear or very intelligible. But even accepting the passport entries and conceding that Roy was away from India from August 24, 1952 to October 26, 1952, as appearing therein, it is not improbable that the letter might have been kept ready for Roy's signature with the date (23rd October 1952) as typed on it, in view of this impending arrival and might have actually been signed and despatched after the 26th. The pencil entry (28th October) on the letter again may well be the date of receipt by the addressee which will support the above view. But in any event, the passport entries are not sufficient by themselves, to show that the letter [Ext. 19(4)] must have been signed in blank and in our opinion the vague suggestion to Ghosh (P.W. 10) in cross-examination (to which, of course, his answer was not very satisfactory or a clear denial that Roy might have left signed blank papers with him) does not necessarily or materially alter the position in the particular facts of this case, Roy not having deposed to explain the true position. We are also of the view that the letter [Ext. 19(4)] having regard to its pharaseology—and the words "our business" are significant in that respect, is sufficient indication of Roy's interest, to wit, material interest, in and of his intimate connection with, the business Indo German Trade Centre. The letter again bears the letter head or inscription "Indo German Trade Centre, 28 Stephen House, Dalhousie Square East, Calcutta-1", and it is admittedly a letter paper of the said concern and, in the absence of any explanation or denial from Roy in the witness box, it may safely be taken that "our business" had reference to the said concern. Even if the particular letter paper had been signed in blank like other similar letters or papers and the body of the letter [Ext. 19(4)] had been manufactured thereon as suggested by the appellants it is difficult to dismiss it from consideration as it is inadmissible that Roy would have so signed it, and he not been intimately connected with the concern Indo German Trade Centre either as proprietor or having a share or interest—to wit, material interest—therein. This letter [Ext. 19(4)] is therefore a very significant document and is sufficient in our opinion, in the facts of this particular case and in the context of Roy's absence from the evidence above to prove Roy's material interest in the concern Indo German Trade Centre and so in the two contracts under consideration.

The cheque, Ext. 16, again along with the Bank papers Exts. 23, 23(1) and 29 also support the above position. They show and that is not disputed that on or about 20th October 1955 appellant Biren Roy received a sum of Rs. 1,190 from Indo German Trade Centre. P.W. 10 K. C. Ghosh has deposed that the above payment was made to Roy as proprietor of Indo-German Trade Centre on account of the profits of the said concern but even if we do not accept the said statement, the payment at least shows that Roy had some financial connection with the said firm. Roy has not deposed to explain the above payment and the only attempt that has been made by the appellants in that behalf is the production of the audited balance-sheet of the firm of an earlier year, namely, 1954 and to argue therefrom that Roy was a mere, to wit, an ordinary creditor of the firm and had a loan account, as shown in the said balance-sheet, presumably as such creditor. We are, however, wholly unconvinced by that argument and attempted explanation on the part of the appellants, particularly in the absence of Roy and also of B. K. Mukherjee from the witness box, and the paper (Ext. E) produced by the appellants for the above purpose, is in our opinion, wholly insufficient to support the said explanation. Indeed, it seems to us that had the appellant's said explanation been true, other and much better materials could and would have been produced by them. In this context and in the present state of the record, we are inclined to think that Roy had sufficient financial interest in the firm or business of Indo-German Trade Centre and was at least the financier, if not the proprietor of the said firm, namely, Indo-German Trade Centre, and that would certainly give him a material interest in the said firm and in its aforesaid contracts, sufficient to bring him within the mischief of section 7(d).

It appears further from the compromise decree (Ext. 21) that Roy was the tenant in occupation of Room No. 28, Stephen House (where the Indo-German Trade Centre had its office) up to 1955 and undertook the liability for rent up to March, 1955 and also for damages for use and occupation for April and May of that year. It appears also from the balance-sheet, Ext. E, that the Indo-German Trade Centre was not paying the rent, the appellants not having contended that the said firm's liability under the loan account of Roy was for rent of its said business premises. It follows, therefore, that Roy was paying the rent, etc., for the Indo-German Trade Centre's business premises and he was, therefore, at least materially interested in its contract or contracts even if he was not its proprietor nor had any share or other pecuniary or financial interest therein—within the meaning of section 7(d) [vide in this connection (1920) 2. K.B. 636].

In the above context the letter (Ext. 3) also may be read to support above conclusion. We are just incidentally referring to the said letter as even without that, the conclusion in view of our foregoing discussion would be the same. In that view, it is not strictly necessary to consider the question of privilege raised in connection with the said letter (Ext. 3) but as the said question has been fully argued before us, we proceed to express briefly our views on the same. Privilege has been claimed by the head of the department which had produced the letter on subpoena from the Tribunal. The claim has been made by a purported affidavit which, however, is not properly sworn. That defect, however, may be ignored as it has been by the Tribunal. The answer depends on three sections of the Evidence Act, namely, sections 123, 124 and 162 to quote all the relevant provisions on the point. So far as the present case is concerned, the decision would really turn on the answer to the question as to who is the proper authority for deciding whether a particular document relates to affairs or matters of State so as to justify or establish a claim of privilege. The question of privilege has been considered by the Privy Council (vide Henry Gour Robinson vs. The State of South Australia 35 C.W.N. 1121) and also by the House of Lords (vide Duncan and another vs. Cammell Laird & Co., Ltd., 1942 A.C. 624) and by this court too in Ijjetali Talukdar vs. Empress 47 C.W.N. 928. As the law on the point has been codified in this country in the sections, quoted above, we would prefer to go by the terms of the said sections and, on the construction of the said terms, we respectfully agree with this court's view, as expressed in the cited authority (47 C.W.N. 928). We do not deem it necessary to refer to the other decisions on the point, e.g., Bhaiya Saheb Dajibabhan Kumbi vs. Pandit Ramnath Ramipratap A.I.R. 1938 Nag. 358, Khawja Nazir Ahmad vs. Emperor A.I.R. 1944 Lah. 434 and Governor-General in Council vs. H. Peer Mohd. Khoda Bux and others A.I.R. 1950 E.P. 228 and as to the case of Irwin vs. Reid reported in I.L.R. 48 Cal. 304 which appears to support the contrary opinion it is enough to say that even on principle on which correctly speaking it purports to proceed it is inconsistent with the Privy Council's exposition of the same in Robinson's case (35 C.W.N. 1121) which is better suited to conditions in this country than the other exposition as given by the House of Lords (vide Duncan and another vs. Cammell Laird and Co., Ltd., 1942 A.C. 624). As a matter of fact also Irwin's case has been held to require modification (vide 47 C.W.N. at p. 934). In the above view of the law, we agree with the Tribunal in overruling the claim of privilege in respect of Ext. 3 in the light of the events which happened before the Tribunal and which have been recorded by it in its order No. 34 dispensing with the necessity of other evidence under section 162 of the Indian Evidence Act.

We have so long studiously avoided placing any reliance on the evidence of either P.W. 9 or P.W. 10 who seek to make out that Roy was the proprietor of the Indo German Trade Centre as in our opinion these witnesses do not appear to be wholly disinterested—at any rate they do not seem to be quite safe or dependable witnesses. It may be argued, however, that at least the evidence of these two witnesses, where it is supported or corroborated by circumstances or other evidence, may well be accepted and that their statements to the above effect receive such support or corroboration from the exhibits to which reference has been made by us, and even the release or disclaimer (Ext. G) which apparently suggests the contrary may be explained away by reference to and in the light of Ext. 27 and the attending circumstances and that Ext. 3(10) was a necessary corollary to Ext. G and does not really affect or alter that position. That may well be a plausible argument, particularly when Roy and Mukherjee who could and should have been examined by the appellants to contradict the said statements and explain the true position if it was otherwise, were not examined and did not take the oaths on the witness box. We do not, however, deem it necessary to examine it or express any opinion on this extreme argument of the petitioners-respondents as on our finding already made, that Roy had at least a material interest in the aforesaid concern—and so in its aforesaid two contracts even though he may not be its proprietor, section 100(1)(a) read with section 7(d) and section 67A after Representation of the People Act, 1951 and Art. 102(1)(a) of the Constitution would invalidate his present election and the instant election petition would succeed on the ground of his said disqualification under the statute.

One word before we conclude the above part of the case. We have freely confess drawn adverse inference against the appellants for non-examination of Roy and Mukherjee and for non-production of some documents (which might and ought to have been produced by them) and for the absence of any attempt on their part in that behalf. This was one by us notwithstanding the fact that the Tribunal chose not to do so, being of the opinion that it was unnecessary We think however that what we have done is amply justified in the circumstances of this case by the authority of the Privy Council (vide Murugesam Pillai vs. Manickavasaka Pandarn and others 44. I.A. 98 of 103 Gurbakash Singh vs. Gurdial Singh and another 32. C.W.N. 119 at p. 124 and Mussammat Lal Kunwar vs. Chiranji Lal 37 I.A. 1 at pp. 4-5). We may add further that the case of Bilas Kunwar vs. Desraj Ranjit Singh 42 I.A. 202 at pp. 206-207 does not also stand in our way as the relevant circumstances there were entirely different and the relative observations were made in a wholly different context.

A small point was also argued before us on behalf of the appellants touching the maintainability of the instant election petition on the allegation that it was not presented by a duly authorised person as required by the statute. The petitioners by Shri Ashim Krishna Dutta. The statute requires authority in writing for such presentation [vide section 81(2)(ii) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951] and there is no such direct authority on the present record. Accordingly the point is taken that the petition was not duly presented. The petition, however, bears an endorsement of the Secretary, Election Commission, as to due authority of Shri Dutt and due presentation and in the absence of an issue on the point to which the Appellants never objected in time and for which they are as much responsible as anybody also in view of what is recorded in Tribunal's order No. 14 and which presumably explains the lack or paucity and absence of direct evidence on the point particularly the full records of the Election Committee we think the presumption, arising from the above official endorsement, should be held sufficient to repel the appellants' above argument.

Lastly, we would refer to the present respondents' preliminary objection taken to Roy's appeal on the ground that he, having retired from the contest and having intimated to the Tribunal that he would not oppose the election petition, had no locus standi to file or maintain the above appeal. We do not think however that that objection is at all material or need be considered in view of the other two appeals which seek the same relief and to which no such objection can be taken and as further the appeals on our findings made above would fail on the merits.

In the result then we overrule the appellants' contentions and dismiss these appeals and uphold the Tribunal's order, declaring the instant election of Shri Biren Roy to be void under the law.

As to costs, however, we would take a different view from the Tribunal. As it is fairly clear from the records before us that the petitioners in this election petition have been set up by the defeated candidate Shri Ashim Krishna Dutt and as a large mass of unreliable oral evidence has been introduced in the case by the petitioners, we do not allow them any costs either here or in the Tribunal below notwithstanding the circumstances pointed out by the Tribunal in support of its award for costs in their (the petitioners') favour and we set aside the Tribunal's said order for costs, directing that each party would bear his or their own costs throughout and, subject, as above, the appeals are dismissed.

Let a copy of this order be sent to the Election Commission, New Delhi, as quickly as possible.

BENGAL ENGINEERING COLLEGE

P.O. Botanic Garden, Howrah

The Bengal Engineering College will open next session on July 6, 1959. The College, which is completely residential, prepares students for the B.E. Degree Examination of the Calcutta University in Civil, Mechanical, Electrical, Metallurgical, Mining and Tele-Communication Engineering, and for the Degree in Architecture (B. Arch.). Admission will be granted on the results of an Admission Test consisting of a written examination for all candidates, to be held on April 27 and 28, 1959 (and also on April 29 for Architecture candidates), a Viva Voce and an Aptitude Test, and a medical examination, commencing on May 18, 1959. Applications must be made in the prescribed form. The prospectus and the application form may be obtained from the College Office either personally or by sending an Unstamped Self-addressed envelope of foolscape size. A number of scholarships and stipends will be awarded to meritorious students on the results of the Admission Test. Applications will be entertained from candidates who have either previously passed the I.Sc. Examination or have appeared in that examination this year with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. The selection of the latter category of candidates will, however, be subject to their passing the examination this year. Candidates must not be over 20 years of age on January 1, 1959, but the age limit may be relaxed up to 22 years with the prior approval of Government in the case of deserving applicants belonging to the educationally backward classes and communities. A total of fifteen candidates may be admitted from the States in which there are no engineering colleges. These candidates will not be nominated as in previous years, but will have to apply to the Principal and appear for examination and interview in the ordinary way. Separate centres may be opened in the States, where there are no engineering colleges provided there is sufficient number of candidates for these centres, but such candidates who are successful at the written test will be required to appear for Viva Voce and Aptitude Test and medical examination at the B.E. College. Application form which will be available from the College Office from March 9, 1959 onwards, must reach the College Office by April 13, 1959.

BENGAL ENGINEERING COLLEGE

P.O. Botanic Garden, Howrah

The Bengal Engineering College will open next session on July 6, 1959. The College, which is completely residential, prepares students for the B.E. Degree Examination of the Calcutta University in Civil, Mechanical, Electrical, Metallurgical, Mining and Tele-Communication Engineering, and for the Degree in Architecture (B. Arch.). Admission will be granted on the results of an Admission Test consisting of a written examination for all candidates, to be held on April 27 and 28, 1959 (and also on April 29 for Architecture candidates), a Viva Voce and an Aptitude Test, and a medical examination, commencing on May 18, 1959. Applications must be made in the prescribed form. The prospectus and the application form may be obtained from the College Office either personally or by sending an Unstamped Self-addressed envelope of foolscape size. A number of scholarships and stipends will be awarded to meritorious students on the results of the Admission Test. Applications will be entertained from candidates who have either previously passed the I.Sc. Examination or have appeared in that examination this year with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. The selection of the latter category of candidates will, however, be subject to their passing the examination this year. Candidates must not be over 20 years of age on January 1, 1959, but the age limit may be relaxed up to 22 years with the prior approval of Government in the case of deserving applicants belonging to the educationally backward classes and communities. A total of fifteen candidates may be admitted from the States in which there are no engineering colleges. These candidates will not be nominated as in previous years, but will have to apply to the Principal and appear for examination and interview in the ordinary way. Separate centres may be opened in the States, where there are no engineering colleges provided there is sufficient number of candidates for these centres, but such candidates who are successful at the written test will be required to appear for Viva Voce and Aptitude Test and medical examination at the B.E. College. Application form which will be available from the College Office from March 9, 1959 onwards, must reach the College Office by April 13, 1959.

BENGAL ENGINEERING COLLEGE

P.O. Botanic Garden, Howrah

The Bengal Engineering College will open next session on July 6, 1959. The College, which is completely residential, prepares students for the B.E. Degree Examination of the Calcutta University in Civil, Mechanical, Electrical, Metallurgical, Mining and Tele-Communication Engineering, and for the Degree in Architecture (B. Arch.). Admission will be granted on the results of an Admission Test consisting of a written examination for all candidates, to be held on April 27 and 28, 1959 (and also on April 29 for Architecture candidates), a Viva Voce and an Aptitude Test, and a medical examination, commencing on May 18, 1959. Applications must be made in the prescribed form. The prospectus and the application form may be obtained from the College Office either personally or by sending an Unstamped Self-addressed envelope of foolscape size. A number of scholarships and stipends will be awarded to meritorious students on the results of the Admission Test. Applications will be entertained from candidates who have either previously passed the I.Sc. Examination or have appeared in that examination this year with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. The selection of the latter category of candidates will, however, be subject to their passing the examination this year. Candidates must not be over 20 years of age on January 1, 1959, but the age limit may be relaxed up to 22 years with the prior approval of Government in the case of deserving applicants belonging to the educationally backward classes and communities. A total of fifteen candidates may be admitted from the States in which there are no engineering colleges. These candidates will not be nominated as in previous years, but will have to apply to the Principal and appear for examination and interview in the ordinary way. Separate centres may be opened in the States, where there are no engineering colleges provided there is sufficient number of candidates for these centres, but such candidates who are successful at the written test will be required to appear for Viva Voce and Aptitude Test and medical examination at the B.E. College. Application form which will be available from the College Office from March 9, 1959 onwards, must reach the College Office by April 13, 1959.

BENGAL ENGINEERING COLLEGE

P.O. Botanic Garden, Howrah

The Bengal Engineering College will open next session on July 6, 1959. The College, which is completely residential, prepares students for the B.E. Degree Examination of the Calcutta University in Civil, Mechanical, Electrical, Metallurgical, Mining and Tele-Communication Engineering, and for the Degree in Architecture (B. Arch.). Admission will be granted on the results of an Admission Test consisting of a written examination for all candidates, to be held on April 27 and 28, 1959 (and also on April 29 for Architecture candidates), a Viva Voce and an Aptitude Test, and a medical examination, commencing on May 18, 1959. Applications must be made in the prescribed form. The prospectus and the application form may be obtained from the College Office either personally or by sending an Unstamped Self-addressed envelope of foolscape size. A number of scholarships and stipends will be awarded to meritorious students on the results of the Admission Test. Applications will be entertained from candidates who have either previously passed the I.Sc. Examination or have appeared in that examination this year with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. The selection of the latter category of candidates will, however, be subject to their passing the examination this year. Candidates must not be over 20 years of age on January 1, 1959, but the age limit may be relaxed up to 22 years with the prior approval of Government in the case of deserving applicants belonging to the educationally backward classes and communities. A total of fifteen candidates may be admitted from the States in which there are no engineering colleges. These candidates will not be nominated as in previous years, but will have to apply to the Principal and appear for examination and interview in the ordinary way. Separate centres may be opened in the States, where there are no engineering colleges provided there is sufficient number of candidates for these centres, but such candidates who are successful at the written test will be required to appear for Viva Voce and Aptitude Test and medical examination at the B.E. College. Application form which will be available from the College Office from March 9, 1959 onwards, must reach the College Office by April 13, 1959.

BENGAL ENGINEERING COLLEGE

P.O. Botanic Garden, Howrah

The Bengal Engineering College will open next session on July 6, 1959 The College, which is completely residential, prepares students for the B.E. Degree Examination of the Calcutta University in Civil, Mechanical, Electrical, Metallurgical, Mining and Tele-Communication Engineering, and for the Degree in Architecture (B. Arch.). Admission will be granted on the results of an Admission Test consisting of a written examination for all candidates, to be held on April 27 and 28, 1959 (and also on April 29 for Architecture candidates), a Viva Voce and an Aptitude Test, and a medical examination, commencing on May 18, 1959. Applications must be made in the prescribed form. The prospectus and the application form may be obtained from the College Office either personally or by sending an Unstamped Self-addressed envelope of foolscape size. A number of scholarships and stipends will be awarded to meritorious students on the results of the Admission Test. Applications will be entertained from candidates who have either previously passed the I.Sc. Examination or have appeared in that examination this year with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. The selection of the latter category of candidates will, however, be subject to their passing the examination this year. Candidates must not be over 20 years of age on January 1, 1959, but the age limit may be relaxed up to 22 years with the prior approval of Government in the case of deserving applicants belonging to the educationally backward classes and communities. A total of fifteen candidates may be admitted from the States in which there are no engineering colleges. These candidates will not be nominated as in previous years, but will have to apply to the Principal and appear for examination and interview in the ordinary way. Separate centres may be opened in the States, where there are no engineering colleges provided there is sufficient number of candidates for these centres, but such candidates who are successful at the written test will be required to appear for Viva Voce and Aptitude Test and medical examination at the B.E. College. Application form which will be available from the College Office from March 9, 1959 onwards, must reach the College Office by April 13, 1959.
